A SPECIAL THANK YOU

I would personally like to thank the women of S.O.S. who pitch in and help us every fall with school opening at the bookstore. I think they represent the finest qualities of our student body and I for one am proud to be associated with them.

BOOKSTORE SURVEY

The "Bookstore Bunch" would like to thank you all for participating in our third bookstore survey. We really need your feedback for the operation of the bookstore. We read them all and many of your suggestions will be made a part of our program for next year. Some of you have expressed concern about the amount of money which is paid for your used texts (most of you feel it is too little). We want to be sure you understand how the book buyback works. The College Book Co. holds a used book buy back on our campus twice a year. The bookstore, of course, has no control over the amount of money that they pay for your used texts. However we do buy back some books for our store at the same time. Our buyback list is for the books that will be used in classes the following semester. For any of the books on our list we will pay you 50% of the original purchase price. We do hope that this will help you to understand our position on the used book matter. Thank you all for your support this year.

ISN'T IT TIME

Isn't it time
to stop saying "It's so sad."
Isn't it time
to stop asking "How'd it get so bad?"
Isn't it time
to start doing what we can?
Isn't it time. Isn't it time?

We're so lucky with what we have;
family, friends and a chance with an education.
The little things that we take for granted,
those are the things that deprive an entire nation.

Water. So simple, yet so essential.
With it, life and growth;
without it, death, drought
and simply no hope.

Isn't it time,
to stop saying "It's so sad."
Isn't it time
to stop asking "How'd it get so bad?"
Isn't it time
to start doing what we can?
Isn't it time. Isn't it time?

How many times I'd sit and watch,
I'd see their faces and I'd hurt so much.
But what did I do, how did I help?
Not one of their lives did I ever touch.

Pity doesn't help,
It just can't feed.
You can't cash it in
for what they really need.

They need food,
they need wheat to live,
and we are the ones
that have to give.

Isn't it time
to stop saying "It's so sad."
Isn't it time
to stop asking "How'd it get so bad?"
Isn't it time
to start doing what we can?
Isn't it time. Isn't it time?

There can be no more excuses,
no more cries "I didn't know."
People are dying,
and it just shouldn't be so.

We as students,
are expected to learn,
but what good is our knowledge
if we show no concern?

It's time to unite,
to act as one,
to work together
to get the job done.

I'm asking you to help,
to sacrifice, to give,
because this is the time
to enable others to live.

This is the time
to stop saying it's sad.
This is the time
to stop asking how'd it get so bad.
This is the time
to start doing what we can.
This is the time. This is the time.
K.S.

Did these words get you to think? If so PLEASE HELP!!!

Contribute to S.A.F.E.-- Students Against Famine in Ethiopia.
There will be collection cans circulating around campus and throughout the dorms, please donate what you can--THIS IS THE TIME!

Donations will also be accepted in the ASB office, the campus ministry office or you can give them directly to Kathy Schubert or Claire Davis.

LOS ANGELES
WOMEN'S CONFERENCE
on NATIONAL SECURITY

The first Los Angeles Women's Conference on National Security will take place on April 26-27, 1985 at UCLA. Local and national experts will address the issues of arms control, defense spending and Soviet-American relations.

The Los Angeles Women's Conference is one of a series of regional fora initiated by The Committee for National Security. CNS, based in Washington, DC, is a non-profit, non-partisan leadership group formed and chaired by Paul C. Warnke. It seeks to promote debate on the nature of national security and how best to achieve it. Its audience is women in or aspiring to positions of leadership in their professions and community. The objective of this Conference is to educate a broad spectrum of women about national security issues and to encourage them to participate knowledgeably in local, regional and national decision-making processes.

The Conference will address questions fundamental to an informed and responsible public discussion of American national security policies:

- * What is the status of superpower relations in the Reagan Administration's second term and how are they evolving?
- * Are there initiatives to revitalize the bilateral relationship and arms control discussions?
- * How does the debate on nuclear and arms control policy affect Americans, allies and adversaries?
- * How are defense dollars being spent?

The Los Angeles Women's Conference seeks to reach out to community organizations, California-based corporations and foundations and to concerned individuals for financial support and participation in the Conference. The Conference is dedicated to bringing together an audience which has not identified with the national security debate to date, as well as continuing to involve organizations which initiated the debate and contributed to its current form.

The Conference is privileged to have as its keynote speaker Paul C. Warnke, former Director of the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency. Other prominent speakers include officials of the Ford, Carter and Reagan Administrations, Members of Congress, scholars from California universities and representatives of the defense industry in Southern California.

The Los Angeles Women's Conference is co-chaired by Yvonne Braithwaite Burke, Dolores Beilenson and Margot Kidder. CNS has invited Mrs. Betty Ford to serve as honorary national Chairwoman for its 1985 Leadership Conference and the Los Angeles Conference. We are also enlisting the support of other prominent Californians to co-chair the Conference, reflecting CNS's commitment to bipartisan support.

*CAMPUS MINISTRY NEWS****

Come join us at the Campus Ministry Center every Tuesday from 8pm to 9pm to pray using the word of God.

ANGELUS BELL

Have you noticed the chapel bell ringing at noon and at 6 p.m.? The practice of ringing the chapel bell at 6 a.m., noon, and 6 p.m. dates back to the 13th century as a devotion to Mary. When the bell rang, people would stop their work and say a special prayer (the Angelus) to Mary. The prayer consists of 3 Hail Marys with a short prayer verse in between each. The morning recital of the Angelus began as a prayer for peace. In a world that is so war filled, you might want to say a short prayer to Mary for peace when you hear the Angelus bell. A copy of the Angelus may be obtained in the Campus Ministry office.

THE SECOND SEMESTER BEGINS!

Welcome back from semester break! Your cooperation and patience is requested as the parking structure is constructed. Be very careful not to block residents driveways or speed in the area. One suggestion is to drive up to campus via Norman Way and to exit campus via Chalon Rd.-Bundy Ave. This would reduce the two-way traffic on both streets...similar to general usage of Parrington short-cut streets. Any reactions or other ideas...come by Student Development.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Over the last several semesters it has come to my attention that several items have been missing from individual rooms, offices, and the library. This violation of others' rights has never been a part of the life of Mount St. Mary's College. It must not become so now. In a college community devoted to the realization of individual potential and with particular concern for human values, we all must be aware that we constitute a counter-cultural trend for the dignity of people and their lives.

I ask that every person in the College take this matter as a serious one, deserving of personal attention, concern, and prayer. And that together we do whatever is necessary to instruct one another and deepen each others concern for the rights of each other and all human beings.

WELCOME BACK, MERIAM WILHELM!

We extend a special welcome back to Meriam Wilhelm, Assistant Dean for Student Development. Meriam has a three-month old son, Christopher Devlin. Come by and greet her in person.

NEW AND REPLACEMENT I.D. CARDS

Have you lost your I.D. Card? Did you forget to get one last fall? Are you having trouble checking books out of the library? Or getting back on campus after 9 p.m.? There will be a retake of I.D. cards for all new students and continuing students who need it on February 13 in the Residence Hall Dining Room at dinner time and on February 20 from 1 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. in the conference room on 2nd floor Humanities. After February 20 there will be a $25 charge for a make-up I.D.

WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

MSMC Women's Leadership Program is open to all Mount Students. Anyone interested in participating in any dimension of the program come to the Student Development office, 2nd floor Humanities. Also, any leadership student who is interested in Leadership 2 (SPR 016B) but has a class conflict, bring your schedule to Student Development Office by Friday February 15th.

P.S. Look for details on up-coming Leadership Conference

DEAN'S ADVISORY COUNCIL ON SOCIAL LIFE

Applications are available for an Advisory Council on Mount Social Life. This ad hoc group of students will report to the Dean for Student Development to explore and make recommendations on the issues of social development in a single-sex institution. Applications may be picked up in the Student Development office and ASB office. Applications are due on February 20th.

INTERESTED IN BEING an R.A., HEALTH ADVOCATE, OR SOS MEMBER! ?

Remember-- "Introduction to Peer Counseling" (SPR 25) is a prerequisite for being a peer counselor. Try to add it to your schedule, especially if you are interested in being a RA or Health Advocate...or in better understanding how to communicate with others. Heavily recommended for all leadership students!

LEARNING ASSISTANCE CENTER

The Learning Assistance Center, located on the lowest level of the library building is open Mon.-Thurs. from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Help is available in study skills, reading, basic math, English, and tutoring in a variety of academic subjects. Regular attendance (1/2 - 2 hrs. weekly) is preferred to "emergency" use of the LAC. Cramming sessions before tests will not take place as a part of the tutoring program. If you wish to schedule some time in the LAC, please see Sr. Sharon as soon as possible.

Do you know that MSMC is affiliated with THE AMERICAN UNIVERSITY? This permits you to spend a semester in the nation's capitol, taking courses and doing an internship in one of these areas: National Government and Politics, Foreign Policy, Economic Policy, Justice, and Journalism. Pati Corrales, Edi Geidiman, Jill Habart, and Connie Orteaga have just returned from the fall semester in Washington. Ask them about their stay.
